Last Request Feb 18 2022 I wrote this book to challenge certain people. Who am I challenging? People who feel empty inside. Do you have anger within you and want to let it go? Are you sad and want to experience joy? Do you feel lost? Confused? Hopeless? Do you feel that life is pointless? Are you depressed? Do you feel like giving up?... If you answered yes to any of these questions, I challenge you to read this book. I'm confident my book can help you fill that emptiness that is presently inside of you and give you a new outlook on life.

Milk Teeth Apr 27 2020 Written as a year-long journal, Milk Teeth chronicles sociologist Robbie Pfeufer Kahn's struggle to achieve a loving relationship with her black Labrador puppy, Laska. Mischievous, intelligent, and strong-willed, Laska challenges her owner's attempts at leadership and affection.

My Journey with Infiltrating Ductile Carcinoma (Breast Cancer) Jan 27 2021 In the nonfiction story My Journey with Infiltrating Ductile Carcinoma (Breast Cancer), author W. Andranette Anderson uses passion and emotions in order to let her audience know how the challenges of breast cancer affect her and her family. Her challenges are compounded when her mother and stepdad are diagnosed with serious illnesses. She is now the primary caregiver not only for her parents but also for herself. The story takes place over a period of two and a half years. During this time, she does her best to live her life as normally as possible, do whatever is needed for her parents, and use her daily activities as a much needed respite in order to ensure her own self preservation. She does not stop working as an educator to take care of her parents and herself, she would not trade anything for the lessons that she learned from this awe-inspiring experience.

The Paris Letters of Thomas Eakins 31 2020 The young Thomas Eakins's most revealing letters—published here for the first time The most revealing and interesting writings of American artist Thomas Eakins are the letters he sent to family and friends while he was a student in Paris between 1866 and 1870. This book presents all these letters in their entirety for the first time in a first edition of Eakins's correspondence from the period. Edited and annotated by Eakins authority William Innes Homer, this book provides a treasure trove of new information, revealing previously hidden facets of Eakins's personality, providing a much richer picture of his artistic development, and casting fresh light on his debated psychosexual makeup. The book is illustrated with Eakins's gemlike drawings included in his correspondence, as well as photographs and paintings. In these letters, Eakins speaks openly and frankly about human relationships, male companionship, marriage, and women. In vivid, charming, and sometimes comic detail, he describes his impressions of Paris—from the training he received in the studio of Jean-Léon Gérôme to the museum visits and popular entertainments that captured his imagination. And he discusses with great insight contemporary aesthetic and scientific theories, as well as such unexpected subjects as language, musical composition, and ice-skating technique. Also published here for the first time are the letters and notebook Eakins wrote in Spain following his Paris sojourn. This long-overdue volume is an indispensable portrait of a great American artist as a young man.

My Carolina Airman Dec 04 2020 This was a magic I'd long forgotten existed.  Alexander: Once upon a time, she'd smiled a lot. Even in her pain, I could see hints of that girl I'd loved so much. She was smart and adventurous and had the snarkiest sense of humor I'd ever met. And, based on the way she'd nearly grinned at me earlier, I could only guess...or hope, rather, that all of that was still inside. As I left the base to head to the nearest pharmacy, a plan began to hatch itself in my mind. The family housing had prompted it, but the more I thought about it, the more I knew it was perfect, really. I could nurse Carly back to health. She'd even have insurance. She'd be independent of her relatives' care, and I would spend the rest of our lives making up for my mistakes. My heart began to hammer in my chest, and with each passing second, I could see it unfolding perfectly in my head. The only problem would be convincing Carly. Saying she could be stubborn in winter is chilly. But I could be stubborn, too.  Carly: I don't know what I'd expected from the kiss, but it wasn't this. This...my brain ceased producing words. Instead, I felt. Saw. Tasted. Smelled. I was warm on my face, and his lips were like fire on mine. My eyes were closed, but colors flashed behind my eyelids like fireworks. In that kiss, I saw glimpses of two kids who fell in love. I saw dreams they'd painted in those bright Carolina sunsets. Familiar as the kiss was, the boy beneath just wasn't the same. Like magma pushing through the earth's crust, a new man was pushing through everything I knew. Confidence I hadn't seen in him before radiated from his gentle hands as they kept me rooted to the spot. Then he was gone. I opened my eyes in confusion to find myself back as the crowd burst into cheers and whistles. "I present Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Calero," the judge announced, and the clapping grew even louder. But I couldn't tear my gaze from him. He smoldered as they met mine, and I knew that we both knew something inside had changed. If only I knew what it was. This was supposed to be a fake marriage, after all, a way to get me home. I needed until Grandpa came back. So why did kissing him feel like waking up? Why did it feel like coming home? My Carolina Airman is the second in the My Air Force Fairy Tale series, clear and wholesome standalone novels about life and love with military men. Read it today to find love, truth, and the magic of happily ever after.

The Bed I Lie On: A Novel Aug 24 2022 You can run... Luke has never stopped running. He fled a quarter of a century ago when the body of his best friend's wife was found on Christmas Eve. He was bludgeoned to death in her kitchen. The crime has never been solved. It wrecked the sleepy pattern of life in the Southern college town of Old Wells and, when Luke finally returns, he can't stop. He is responsible. ...But you can't hide Now someone wants him dead. But who? And why? Surrounded by the sometimes surreal characters that populate this corner of Dixie, Luke can't do anything but trust. It takes the renewal of an old love to teach him that real survival means not just solving the murder, but also the crazy jigsaw puzzle of his life.

Conversations on La Playa Apr 20 2022 As a young American university exchange student in the early 1970s, author Robert Hodum found himself in the exotic and mystifying South American country of Colombia. The time he spent there left an indelible imprint upon his life and led him to a career in Latin American history. Journey back to a country torn by poverty and civil unrest, and travel through some of Colombia's most perilous and magical settings in conversations on La Playa. With candor and a good dose of humor, Hodum recreates all the sights, smells, and sounds of Colombia, from the subterranean, dangerous world of the city of Medellín, its mist-enshrouded Cordillera neighborhoods, and the haunting characters of its urban landscape. In addition to his personal journey, the book includes an extensive glossary of important people, places, and things as well as cultural and historical information that are indispensable for any traveler to the country. He also gives a complete survival vocabulary and expressions in Spanish that offer a deeper appreciation of Colombia, its people, and their language. Travel through Cordillera mountain ranges, mysterious jungles and the adventures and endure the travails of life on the road through one of South America's most exciting countries with Conversations on La Playa.

The Whispering Roots 22 2022

Bread of Tears 24 2020 He is a ninety-one-year-old young man of the old school, such as being soft spoken and well taught in military life, with the ability to give and take orders with ease. This is his first book and there may be more. His emotions are strong and he did everything for his family, i.e. mother, sisters, and brothers. In his book, he relates how he goes places and works to earn money for them so they may have food and clothing. Later, he got married and had a son and then found he also had a stepdaughter with the lady he married first and also raises her. He is of confusion and often misbehavior related in his book and lots of bread or food for tears within his life. That misbehavior and confusion went away when he met and married a lovely lady, beauty from Santa Cruz, California, who had lost her husband. They became fast friends immediately upon meeting and married within two months. She also has a daughter who lives in Las Vegas, Nevada. His life has seen a great change, and he is now living in a small town with the lady he should have been espoused to long ago. He has walked the streets of China, ridden on rickshaws, helped thresh oats, barley, and wheat in Canada, lived on the beach in Fiji as a native, spent hours in the rains of the Philippines, attended navy school in Florida Keys, experienced the Panama Canal, and the Mojave Desert, watched Italy disappear in the sunset, saw the enemy's home towns, spent six hours swimming in the Coral Sea when the USS Lexington sank, outwitted the Japanese, and flew into Pearl Harbor in a TBD aircraft the day after Pearl Harbor had been attacked, viewing the death and ruin of that harbor.

Mystical Awareness 03 2020 Mystical Awareness (title) the book is all of the paranormal or metaphysical things that I've encountered throughout my life. Take from it what you will. Perfect Company 15 2021 This book contains personal experiences with Jesus Christ, His Mother and His Saints. It reveals hidden traps by the evil one and its friends. When Jesus came to write in 2006, I was relieved and happy. I thought about the experiences I had of Him in the past and could write about that. I had no idea that four books would evolve from this encounter with Jesus. In this book the story continues whereby Jesus uses my life situations to reveal His power and wisdom. Jesus takes me through many experiences so others can be enlightened and saved in their lives. I am not to keep these things to myself but to let them be known. Jesus is anxious for others to come to know Him. He walked among humans on earth and was not a liar. In the Bible, He was revealed several times as God. A statement I saw on this book read: 'Stepped in the profound traditions of Catholic mysticism.' I agree with this statement. Jesus is a child of God one does not have to be steeped in Catholic Mysticism. Most of the churches I attend are Catholic, they are mystical, but mysticism can be found in every church based on the traditions of the Church are not for Catholics only. They are for everyone who wants to indulge in them. Jesus did not come to place us into churches with particular names, but to save us. He believes in me and is baptised will be saved (Mt 15:16). Another statement I saw about the book read: 'It is thought provoking and passionate.' I would agree that it is definitely thought provoking. It is not what the normal human being would experience in their everyday life. These things are there but people are not realising what is going around them. These things are not tangible in the normal sense. I believe the passion must be contained in the style of my writing and my determination to pen everything. Jesus wanted to relay something to the world and I believe He has done so. We are walking in a state of unsafety, and no one is telling us anything concerning this. Our homes, our cars, our streets, our churches, our supermarkets, products we buy, and even our workplaces are unsafe. These are just a some of the unsafe settings Jesus has pointed out to me as having evil and evil workers lurking to make our environments difficult and unsafe. This is the problem is for people to turn to God and refuse to live in a society where He is obscured and ignored.

Pulp Classics 22 2019 A reprint of the June 1931 issue of the classic pulp magazine, GHOST STORIES, which features contributions from Conrad Richter (best known as the author of The Red Badge of Courage) and a story by E. and H. Heron (pen name for Mrs. Kenneth and Mr. Hesketh Prichard) featuring their psychic detective, Flaxman Low.

Burden 06 2021 The year is 1984. Things are looking up for 30 year old David Boyer, an aspiring world class athlete. He is on the cusp of achieving his lifelong dream of becoming one of the top tennis players in the world, when his life is turned upside down by a serious accident. With his body damaged and his spirit crushed, he is forced to accept menial work with a large employer where his father already works. Bucky Boyer is a brilliant scientist who has invented a revolutionary electrical device, years ahead of its time, that threatens to bankrupt the very company he works for.

them. Meanwhile, dozens of retired employees have been dying in tragic accidents. Joe Miller, David's friend, coworker, and frustrated amateur detective, senses the suspicious nature of it and is reluctantly dragged into the conspiracy. With the help of another old friend from childhood and his amazing pet, the mystery is finally unraveled. David confronts his ultimate fear and, in so doing, gains a powerful life lesson and a deeper appreciation for this new life that has replaced the one he lost. This novel has everything: danger, suspense, tragedy, fishing, intrigue, funny stories, sad stories, and complicated characters, romance, courageous animals, timeless words of wisdom, and humor. Two thumbs up (the author's).
